

Where can we have our picnic?

This document contains some references to establishments where you can have your lunch in the city center. Often, you'll have to buy a beverage in order to stay and have your luncheon. We recommend that you make reservations.

- The cafeteria of the Royal Library

Located at 15 min. from the Belgian Comic Strip Center you'll find this cafeteria where groups of maximum 40 people are welcomed. For reservations, call: 02/519.57.21

School groups are asked to call in at the reception desk, where the person in charge of reservations will show them to the space that has been reserved. It is important to respect the time schedule for your reservation, seeing that this is a popular place for luncheons amongst school groups visiting the Brussels musea.
